FAST YOUNGSTERS READY FOR KENTUCKY DERBY RACE

Milly Kelly, War Pennant and War Marvel Are Among Favorites in Spring Events.

LOUISVILLE, KY., March 17 .- Of the seventy-five three-year-olds, colts, allies and geldings, nominated for this year's renewal of the Kentucky derby, nost popular of American spring speclais for three-year-olds, sixteen are stake winners of last season, thirtyone are two and three-year-old winners and twenty-eight are maidens. A better lot of three-year-olds probably was never named for a derby. Last better lot of three-year-olds probably was never named for a deerby. Last season's two-year-old output was away above the average as to both quality and quantity, and without exception the star two-year-olds of 1918 are named for the derby which will be decided at Churchill Downs on May 10 and pay $20,000 in added money.

Prominent among the stake-winning nominations is Commander J. K. L. Ross' gelding, Billy Kelly, winner of the Columbus handicap and the Annapolis. Eastern Shore, Eclipse, Grab Bag, Sanford Memorial and United States stakes. With Billy Kelly are named the colts War Pennant and War Marvel and Sir Barton, the first named winner of the Walden, Ard-ley, Oceanna, Remson, Babylon and Champagne. Other stake-winning nominations are James W. McClelland's Eternal, winner of the John S. McLean memorial cup. Oakdale handicap and Hopeful; Philip A. Clark's Dunboyne, winner of the Great American and Futurity; B. J. Brannon's Colonel Livingston, winner of the Fort Thomas, Breeders' Futurity and Harold: Cornelius M. Garrison's Be Frank whener of the Roseben and Potomac handicaps; Frank Bicknell's Skye Ball, winner of the Nevada derby; J. S. Hawkin's Delizo, winner of the Hartsdale handicap; H. H. Hewit's Sam Relb, winner of the Beechmont selling stakes; Gallaher Brothers' Regalo, whener of the Debutante: Samuel C. Hildreth's Cirrus, winner of the Valuation; Frank Girrus, winner of the Valuation; Frank J. Nolan's The Trump, winner of the Nursery handicap, and Harry Payne Whitney's Blue Laddie, winner of the Pimlico Nursery, and O. A. Blanchi's Senning Park, winner of the Spring Trial.

With the form of most of these horses racing folk everywhere are familiar. Cobweb, however, is a recent development. So is Sailor. So to a certain extent is Undertire. Cobweb, a daughter of Sweep and Cluny, owned by C. W. Clark, has been pronounced by Philip T. Chinn the smartest three-year-old by Sweep in the country. Chinn believes that she will run all day with the best of the colts. Cohweb has won three races this year.

SAILOR WINS TWO OUT OF THREE STARTS THIS YEAR
Sailor, a son of All Gold and Boisterous, and a near relative on the distaff side of Liberty Loan, Burgomaster and Johren, did not attract great attention last season when he raced for Mrs. Payne Whitney. But he has won two out of his three starts this year, and is highly considered. Underfire, a son of Swynford and Startling, and an imported colt, was only fair last season when he raced under the silks of W. R. Coc. of New York. But he has shown marked improvement since he became a member of the racing establishment of that universally popular Western sportsman. Pat Dunne, Underfire has won five races this season. Delico, a black daughter of Celt (sire of Dunbeyne) and Dainty Dame, was slow showing real form last season. But when she won the Queen City handicap at Latonia last fall, she established herself. She is a rare distance runner. Beware of black daughters of Celt. Celto was a mighty good filly through

American Railway Express Has Six Hundred

This fleet of Autocars is the strongest possible evidence of the satisfaction this motor truck renders in the hardest kind of service.

For the multiple demands of express delivery and collection this 11/2 to 2-ton truck is found ideal. Its short wheel-base enables it to maneuver quickly in narrow streets and congested quarters where motor truck operation would seem impossible.

So well does the Autocar lend itself to both long and short hauls it is now used by 7000 business houses in 400 different lines of business.
